

Empty Bowls Festival Silent Auction Call for Artists

EVENT DETAILS

The Empty Bowls Festival is a family friendly celebration of local talent including visual arts, performing arts, and fine craft. This event will draw the community together, bring awareness to local hunger issues, and raise funds for the Wood Buffalo Food Bank.

Guests will purchase a hand-crafted bowl, made by the Fort McMurray Potter's Guild, and with that bowl they make their way around the festival, sampling creations from several stations hosted by local eateries. They will also enjoy art performances, activities, and vendors.

THE OPPORTUNITY

Local artists can donate either 2D or 3D artwork to the festival silent auction, which will take place both at the event and online. Artists can recommend a minimum starting bid price for their piece. Artists will receive 50% of the final sale price, while the other 50% goes to the WBFB, or they can choose to give the WBFB 100% of the final sale price. Artwork must be exhibition/display ready (finished edges, framed as appropriate, wired for hanging).

DATE: Sunday, September 10, 2017 11:00 – 3:00 PM

LOCATION: Jubilee Plaza and MacDonald Avenue

SUBMISSION DEADLINE: August 18, 2017
